TORONTO TIDINGS

Miss Lucy Buchanan, of Walkerville, arrived in our midst on November 24th, for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Buchanan, Sr., and other relatives. She looks robust and sprightly.

After a three weeks' visit to Windsor and Detroit, Mr. Harry Sloan, of Churchill, dropped into this city on November 24th, and at time of writing is still here trying to "catch on" with a job. Harry is a fine young chap and is a brother of Wallace Sloan, now at the Belleville School.

Mr. Walter Bell has sold his residence on Durie Street and purchased a new one in Oshawa, where he and his family will move early in January. This will save him his customary week-end trips to this city.

Nicholas Gura, of Oshawa, was up to see his many friends here over the week-end of November 26th.

While strolling up Yonge Street on November 26th, the reporter and Mrs. Roberts ran into Mr. Herbert McKenzie, of Aurora, and a brief little chat ensued. Mr. McKenzie was down to do a little shopping and his daughter, Miss Sara McKenzie, who works here, returned home with him for that week-end.

Mr. H. W. Roberts motored out to Weston on November 27th, to see the Misses Mabel Burke and Mildred Hutchins, who are still in the hospital there, but are very cheerful and somewhat better. Mr. N. A. McGillivray was also out to see them a short time previously.

Our Ladies' Aid Society gave a "Royal Supper" in our church basement on November 25th, to about forty of the oldest members of our church and what a charm it was to behold our "June blossoms" catering most courteously to our "December Snowflakes," and the latter were most grateful for such a treat. It was a surprise to many, when it was given out that the combined ages of Miss Annie Perry, Mrs. Bella Morse and Mr. Charles McLaren totaled 250 years. And all three are going strong. That day was Mrs. Morse's eightieth birthday and she was roundly felicitated. Afterwards a movie show was given to all in the Bridgen, Nasmith Hall, and a very good crowd turned out.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mason were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Bell, at Birch Cliffe, on November 27th, and had a very lovely time.

Our Catholic brethren enjoyed a good time at a euchre party at St. Peter's Hall, on November 25th. A large number of hearing friends were also present.

Miss Mary Nahrang, the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Nahrang, of Haysville, is now working in this city. Though not deaf herself, she can converse in our language fluently.

The Misses Catherine Ford and Ada James, of the Belleville School teaching staff, were up in this city on November 26th, doing their Christmas shopping and visiting friends.

Mr. Charles Ford was the speaker at our service on November 27th, and made a deep impression by giving a short but convincing address on "Why the Blood of the Lamb can only cleanse our sins, there being no other remission." The old familiar hymn, of "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," was rendered by Miss Carrie Brethour.

Mrs. Charles Wilson Kuehn, we regret to say, met with a painful accident lately. While on a street car, she fell on the floor during a sudden swerve, with the result that a tendon in her ankle was fractured. She is now doing as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Wilbur and her son, of Hampton, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Grooms.

Mrs. R. R. Riddell has now moved from Dorval Road to 746 Dupont Street, and is now living with Mrs. Hubbard.

Messrs. W. W. Scott on and John Buchanan and Miss Evelyn Hazlett have been notified from Ottawa that they succeeded in passing their examinations on postal laws and regulations held recently. Congratulations.

Mr. Alex. McGean, of Malton, motored down and spent the week-end of November 12th with old pals here, who were glad to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown have just moved to 46 Kippendive Ave., in the Kew Beach district, which is a favorite sporting paradise all the year round.

Mr. W. R. Watt again gave a very good address at our Epworth League on November 30th, but owing to the terribly stormy evening there were not as many out as usual.

On waking up on November 17th and finding the ground covered with a mantle of the "beautiful," Mr. W. W. Scott thought it was fine to go out rabbit hunting, so he shouldered his trusty Winchester and went tramping over the moor in quest of the elusive "bunny" around Scarborough, but failed to get a shot. However, meeting two fellow workers, he got them to motor out to Maple, some eighteen miles north of this city.

Here luck presented itself, and before long Billy bagged a "cotton tail" on the run, due to his good marksmanship. The other fellows were also lucky to get three between them. Home they then went with visions of a rabbit pie. Why not send Billy overseas for the King's Prize.

There was some great excitement at the Bridgen Club bowling races on Saturday evening, November 26th, when two strong teams crossed swords for supremacy in a hotly contested game. The teams were captained respectively by Mrs. John Buchanan and her sister-in-law, Miss Caroline Buchanan. Each had seven players and both went evenly until near the finish, when Mr. David Lawrence made a wild dash for the highest individual scoring, that greatly helped Mrs. Buchanan's team in winning the game by the score of 850 to 654. David's single score was 226. Mrs. Buchanan also led the ladies in individual scoring, with a mark of 110. This was the first time she ever played this game. Great times are had at such games, but all who play in these contests must be paid-up members of the Bridgen.

OWEN SOUND OPINIONS

The meeting here lately, which Mr. Fred Terrill, of Toronto, conducted, was very interesting to the score of deaf present.

Mrs. Goetz gave a birthday party in honor of her daughter on November 28th, and all had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMaster, of Warton, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. James Green in Chesley.

Mr. Hugh Carson's uncle, of Cape Rich, came down to see him, then left for a pleasure trip to Sault Ste Marie lately.

Mr. Rourke was out to his old home in Tara lately, attending the silver jubilee of his parents' wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. James Green, of Chesley, were in this city the other day and called on the Carsons, but finding them out, went over to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smith's.

Mrs. Hugh Carson's sister, her husband and two children of Ayr, spent Thanksgiving recess with the Carsons, and it was a nice family gathering.

Mrs. Russell Hopkins's brother came down to see her, and later took her and her baby for a motor ride to Detroit, where she visited for six weeks, and then he brought them safely home.

Mrs. Hugh R. Carson was accorded a delightful birthday party by her husband lately, who with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smith and William Corbett, presented her with a very useful hot-point iron, of which she is now very proud. A very good time was enjoyed by all.

GALT GATHERINGS

Mr. Lewis Patterson was out to see his parents and deaf brother in Milton for the week-end of November 26th. Lewis expects his brother to secure a job in this city soon.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Moynihan and daughter, Beverly, came down at the invitation of Roy Cole's mother and had tea with them on November 27th. After tea, Mr. Lewis Patterson, of hockey fame, came in, having just returned from Milton, and a very nice evening ensued. Being an old sportsman, Mr. Moynihan takes much interest in Lewis, his young progeny of the hockey arena.

Mr. Roy Coles' injured eye is coming around very nicely and he hopes to be all right ere long.

Roy Coles spent the week-end of November 20th with his chum, Lewis Patterson, in Milton, and both had a fine time together.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Lewis, of Brantford, were in Detroit, visiting their youngest son over Thanksgiving.

Miss Ophelia Luddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Luddy, of Burlingame, Cal., was a guest of Miss Ella Wood, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wood, of Santa Barbara, Cal., for a couple of weeks lately. Both of these ladies are very clever and refined and converse in our language fluently, though not deaf.

While returning home from his visit to Toronto, Mr. John Taylor, of Singhamton, stopped at Horning Mills and gave Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Middleton a "hello smile" on November 23d.

Word comes from Mount Forest to say that Mrs. George Boulding is up and around again, after being forced to bed for over three months with a severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Timpson, of Long Branch, have sold the house that they built since moving out there and have purchased a more modern and commodious residence further up the street. These two friends are great hustlers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Braven, of Brantford, were visiting their daughter in Hamilton lately, and while there attended the fifteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Quick, of that city, on November 26th. Mr. Braven, who is now seventy years young, was very ill, but is improving now.

We hear that Mr. Norman V. Lewis of Los Angeles, Cal., has sold out his printing business and is now living in a brand new stucco home in Hollywood, and they have a fine Buick sedan.

The writer sends to the editor this week subscriptions for the following: Edward Fishbein, of London; L. A. Schneider, of Pembroke; Hugh R. Carson, of Meaford; Charles McLaren, of Long Branch, and Landon Isabell, of Santa Barbara, Cal. They all say this is the best paper for the deaf they have yet seen.

We regret to say that our old friend, Mr. Edgar Every Clayton, of Coombs, British Columbia, recently lost his father by death. Edgar was formerly a resident of Toronto, where he has many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradshaw, (nee Elsie Garden) are doing very well in Santa Barbara, Cal., and live only a few blocks from Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wood, and have a fine Buick car. We wish for them a smooth road ahead.

While going to a bazaar at St. Mary's hall in Waterloo, Mrs. John A. Moynihan and daughter, were recognized by a brother of our old friend, Miss Elizabeth Ringle, formerly of Kitchener, but now of Rochester, and a nice chat ensued. At the bazaar the Moynihans sat by the side of Mr. and Mrs. Gabel, parents of Mrs. W. K. Liddy, of Windsor. The bazaar was a great success.

It is most gratifying when we hear of the success of our deaf friends everywhere, and the latest to blossom out on the horizon of prosperity are the Schneider brothers, of Pembroke, who are doing the bulk of the shoe-making trade in that pretty city on the banks of the Ottawa River that majestically flows down into the mighty St. Lawrence then out to sea. These boys are ever pushing forward.

A few years ago, Mr. Nelson Wood, of Santa Barbara, Cal., purchased a lot on the beach for $500, which many thought was a very risk of undertaking and to make it worse, huge tidal waves wrought havoc there on almost every year since. However, Nelson took the chances good-naturedly and what a happy soul he was the other day, when an oil speculating concern offered him $4000 for his lot, and now he smiles greater than ever before as he pockets this little fortune.

Miss Annie Gayski and Mr. Alfred Reeves, both graduates of the Winnipeg School for the Deaf, were quietly married on October 22d last. Mr. Reeves visited Toronto and the east a short time ago.

We regret to say that Mr. George F. Healey has gone from this scene forever, when he died in Liverpool, England, on November 10th. Here is his career in brief:—

One of Liverpool's most remarkable figures has died in Mr. George Frederick Healey, who for sixty years had devoted himself ungrudgingly to the service of the deaf and earned national reputation for his activities.

Born in August, 1843, at Gateacre, he lost his hearing when but a few months old, and at an early age made the welfare of the deaf in Liverpool his life work.

For an unbroken fifty years, he conducted Sunday services on their behalf and was responsible for the building of the Deaf Institute, opened in 1887, by Princess Louise, of Argyll. He founded the National Deaf Association in 1890, and was treasurer for thirty years.

Among the benefits he organized for the deaf were a benevolent society, penny bank, library, temperance society and gymnastic club. The whole of his work was voluntary.

Mr. Healey was widely known and esteemed for the dignity and simplicity of his character. He died at a Birkenhead nursing home. His residence was 13 Charlesville, Oxtou, Birkenhead.

The deceased visited Canada and Toronto about twenty-eight years ago and has many friends here of the older generation. He was a personal and warm friend of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Walker, formerly of England, but now of Toronto.

Binghamton Division No. 108, N. F. S. D.

On Saturday evening, November 26th, at a public installation in Hotel Bennett, Binghamton No. 108, National Fraternal Society of the Deaf came into being. Grand President Francis P. Gibson performed the ceremonies, presenting the charter to twenty Frats, each one being attached to divisions in and around Binghamton. Fortunately Binghamton No. 108 starts off with a division of experienced members of the Order, ready to spread the usefulness of the grandest organization for the deaf in the world.

There were over two-hundred ladies and gentlemen present at the celebration, many coming in their own cars. The new division had arranged the program in advance, treating all to a delicious buffet—sandwiches, salads, coffee, ice cream and cake. In addition, a sightseeing trip was contemplated the following day, which was cancelled due to inclement weather. Those who had remained overnight at the Hotel and others living in and around the city, attended services conducted by Rev. Brother Merrill and Rev. Brother J. M. Koehler.

At the installation, Bro. Gibson presented the new division with a gavel and brought a large United States flag, the gift of Chicago No. 1. Utica division presented the new division with $20.00.

Several divisions were represented at the installation, and as far as the writer can remember: Albany, Schenectady, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Scranton, Utica, Manhattan.

Grand President Gibson was scheduled to make stop overs in Utica, Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo, on his way back to Chicago, but was unavoidably called back home, much to his regret. Inasmuch as Utica division had made plans to entertain him while in their city on Sunday and Monday, its members being notified of the treat in store for them, and in order to prevent the division from unnecessary embarrassment, Brother Max M. Lubin, the Manhattan representative, was delegated to act as "understudy." Accompanied by Brother Thomas in his Chrysler, with a deaf chauffeur at the wheel, Brother Lubin was whisked over the beautiful trail, known only to those who have passed through it, to Hotel Utica and was guest there of Utica division. On Monday evening, Brother Lubin spoke to a large gathering at Macabees Temple, and left on the last train for Manhattan. While in the city, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas, he visited the Rome School for the deaf. Brother Costello had him in tow until the time for the gathering that evening.

MAX M. LUBIN.

ST. LOUIS

A birthday party was held on the 27th, in honor of Miss Lottie Wilson at the home of her parents in Belleville. The inclement weather kept many from attending. The affair was a complete surprise to the recipient who received many mementoes of the occasion from her friends. Among those present were the Arnots, Wess, Steidemanns, Mrs. Alt and Mr. Behr.

The Woman's Guild of St. Thomas Mission gave their annual fall supper and bazaar in the Parish House of the church of the Redeemer on the 19th. The Mission has been handicapped for the past two years in not having its own rooms for its affairs, while waiting for the Bishop Tuttle Memorial to be built. It is likely that we will be back in our old quarters though in a new building by spring, or early summer at the latest. The supper was well attended in spite of other social affairs being held the same evening, and the members of the Guild deserve praise for their work in the Mission. During the evening a generous check was given Mr. Steidemann for his work in leading the Mission at service during the past year.

Bro. Dieckhoener, of the St. Louis division of the Frats, died on the 23d, after illness of over a year's duration. The deceased was of a very retiring disposition and hardly if ever seen at our social gatherings, although known to all the older generation. The funeral was held on the 25th with Messrs. Rubeling, Ofenstein, Keim, Schaub, Schulte and a hearing friend of the deceased.

Miss Pearl Herdman, the acting principal of the Gallaudet School of this city, has after strong opposition of the pure-oral adherents on the School Board, been appointed principal to the great satisfaction of all the local deaf patrons of the school and parents of deaf children attending the school. The policy of the school has always been to use the best method for that particular child under discussion and that policy will remain used at the school.

The Gallaudet School will hold its annual entertainment and ball on the 10th, as has been customary in the past. The proceeds go to the picnic expense fund and other social affairs held by the pupils and teachers.

The local chapter of the Missouri Association of the Deaf held an euchre and lotto party under the management of Sam Beck and his assistants on the 26th, turning the profits to swell the fund for a future home of the aged and infirm deaf. The committee in charge of the Christmas fund to give cheer to the needy deaf blazed the way with a similar affair on the 20th. Both entertainments were well patronized. The latter committee has over a hundred dollars for its purpose.

The Gallaudet Club held its annual ball on the 3d. The unexplained late arrival of the musicians who did not appear till after ten, kept the majority of our hearing patrons from entering, as there was no music and thus dampened both the pleasure and attendance. Cash prizes were awarded to the best and most comical costumes.

A grandson was born to the Burghers, making them the youngest grandparents in town.

During the past few years a custom has sprung up among the locals to have their Thanksgiving dinners with congenial friends, the expenses attached being shared equally and each home-owner entertaining in turn. The occasion is thus much more enjoyed and the expense cut in half—not to speak of the advantage of there being no turkey hash or turkey soup the next few days to get rid of the remnants. The turkeys at these meals are practically nil after the great battle at dinner and the skirmish with the fragments later in the evening. The interval between is spent after the dishwashing, in games, walks to points of interest in the neighborhood, or in "the gentle art of making enemies," otherwise known as gossip.

Mrs. Arnot was fortunate enough to win a live flapping goose at a ticket drawing of a local movie, a few days before Thanksgiving. Was quite a job to get it home in the security of her basement for feeding a few days before requiring it to reciprocate.

Calvin Young who, several years ago, was injured in a factory and secured a lump sum in trust, cash and a life job from his employer as compensation, was haled before the probate court by his father, who claimed he was insane and desired what funds his son had be turned over to the father for safe-keeping. The case was thrown out when the judge was shown by witnesses that Calvin was earning his living at his work, was satisfactory to his employer, and had not annoyed his parents in any way. Miss Herdman was on hand to act as interpreter, but the case was so plain, her services were not required.

The football team and entourage of the Iowa School, that lost to the Illinois eleven at Jacksonville on the 11th, passed through Fulton, Mo., and St. Louis, on their way home, due to Iowa mud causing a big detour. The Fulton school was practically deserted, due to the school's football team having gone to Webster, near St. Louis, for a game with the high school of that suburb, in which the deaf lost. The game was witnessed by a large delegation from St. Louis.

Mrs. Becton, of Dyer, Tennessee, is visiting her friends, the Brockmanns, for a week's stay, having taken advantage of an excursion rate.

Arthur Richard, the eldest of the Steidemann boys, was one of the singers at the Coliseum, when the St. Louis Pageant Drama and Choral Association presented Mendelssohn's Oratorio of Elijah.

Mr. Green, a native of Tennessee, but a former resident of this city, has returned to St. Louis for a more or less permanent stay, dependent on working conditions.

Aug. Rodenberger and his corps of assistants, who have been working on and off for the past few years on a pantomime entertainment, have announced everything ready for a grand opening of their act, and will start the overture on December 15th, in St. Louis. Hearing friends will arrange all expenses and take a percentage of the receipts. Should it be successful, Gus plans to move to St. Louis and take away the patronage from local theatres and movie houses.

OMAHA.

Hats off to Miss Pearl Herdman, who was appointed principal of the Gallaudet Day School in St. Louis, Mo. She taught there for many years and her ability and understanding of the deaf will prove the wisdom of her choice.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Anthony and other friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dobson, celebrated the fifth wedding anniversary of the Dobsons by giving them a surprise party in the Nebraska room, Friday evening, November 4th. The Dobsons were genuinely surprised and later they were presented with a handsome magazine rack. Mrs. Dobson was Evelyn Pearson, and they have two bright little boys.

Miss Edith Anderson, who formerly worked for a fashionable seamstress, is now employed in the drapery department of Orchard and Wilhelm's furniture store. The Andersons have moved to Council Bluffs, for the greater convenience of Ray, who works at the Iowa School.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Macek recently spent a couple weeks on the farm of Geo. Thomsen, near Cedar Bluffs. Charles helped with corn husking and did his best to reduce the Thomsens' stock of spring chickens, which numbers several hundred.

Mrs. Roy Steward, nee Ellen Pearson, of Washington, D. C., spent several weeks with relatives and friends in Nebraska last summer. She teaches sewing and domestic science in the Kendall School.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Holway entertained the Linger-a-While Club at their home, Wednesday evening, November 23d. Four tables at Bridge were played, and light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Leitner, of Pittsburg, Pa., (the latter, nee Aimee Menard) also visited in Nebraska last summer, after attending the Denver convention.

Mrs. J. E. Probert and baby, of Sioux City, Ia., visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Treuke for a week. The baby was christened by Rev. Mappes at the Benson Lutheran Church, with Mr. and Mrs. Treuke acting as sponsors. Mr. Probert and Edward Humphrey attended the Frat Carnival and all left for home the following day, making the trip in Humphrey's coupe.

Messrs. Z. B. Thompson, Eugene Fry and Eugene McConnell drove to Des Moines, Ia., in the latter's car on November 5th. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Robinson, who "threw a party" in their honor. Mr. Thompson visited relatives in Des Moines and vicinity, and Mr. Fry took a train for Chicago, where he worked for three weeks on an assignment. He says he would stay there if it was not for his mother, who needs him here. He met Fred Lee, another Nebraska artist, who is making big money and enjoying it. Miss Katie Mohl and Miss Emma Maser, also former residents of Lincoln, Neb., are working there.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton J. Netusil have rented their cottage and moved to Council Bluffs, to be nearer the Iowa School, where Anton has charge of the carpenter shop. He is an expert cabinet maker.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wear have also moved across the Big Muddy, where Mr. Wear is employed in a big grain elevator operated by Mr. Roennfeldt. Mr. Roennfeldt has gone to visit with relatives in Washington State.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Holloway were host and hostess to the Midwest Chapter, at their home in Council Bluffs Friday night, November 25th. A short business session was held. Owen Study, of Iowa, was admitted into the chapter. Bridge was played "as usual," there being seven tables. Norman Scarvie and Mrs. Tom I. Anderson won first prizes for the best scores; Oscar Treuke and Mrs. Hester were seconds, while Miss Edith Anderson and Dr. J. S. Long took the consolations. Refreshments were served shortly before midnight.

Mrs. Emma Seely entertained the O. W. L. S. at her home on Saturday afternoon, November 26th. Miss Mary Dobson won first prize at Bridge and Mrs. F. Arthur Clayton, the consolation. An informal supper was served and later most of the Ows attended the Frats party at the N. S. D.

The local Frats held an indoor carnival Saturday night, November 26th, at the Nebraska School Auditorium. There was a large crowd present and the weather was favorable. The tent booth was crowded and the committee did not have enough to go around. For ten cents one could buy a ticket that was sure to draw an article of some kind, worth from five cents up to $1.00. At another booth, scores of boxes of delicious candy were quickly disposed of. Confetti and serpentine were sold, and "kids" of all ages had a hilarious time. Mrs. Oscar Treuke won an electric waffle iron in a popularity contest, that resembled an auction, in the closing moments. Misses Edith Anderson and Nellie Neuhay gave her a good run for her money. The door prize number were won by Walter Zabel, who got a duck; Edwin Hazel, a chicken and Joe Kyncl, a box of candy. A chicken presented by George Thomsen was raffled off. Council Bluffs was well represented and from Lincoln came Mr. and Mrs. John Chowins; from Des Moines, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Ross Koons; Miss Marie Wilburn from Anita, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Probert and Edward Humphreys; from Sioux City, Ia., Mrs. David Eckstrom and baby, of Detroit, Mich., who have been visiting Mrs. Eckstrom's brother and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hansen in Council Bluffs were also present. They expect to stay a couple weeks yet. It was a great night, and every body had a great time. Selah!

"He's true to God who's true to man;
Whenever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest
Neath the all-beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves,
And not for all the race."

Notice concerning the whereabouts of individuals will be charged at the rate of ten cents a line.

Specimen copies sent to any address on receipt of five cents.

It seems only proper to mention the progress of the fund being raised to erect a statue to Abbe Charles Michel de l'Epee, the good priest that is on record as the first man to attempt the education of the deaf and dumb by the employment of the manual alphabet and signs. This attempt occurred in Paris, in the year 1754, and result in the establishment of the National Institution for the Instruction of Deaf-Mutes in Paris, France. In front of the main entrance to the to this great school is a statue of De l'Epee, created by Felix Martin, a former pupil.

Through the method and example of the good abbe, the instruction of the deaf became world-wide, and in this day and generation an uneducated deaf-mute is a rarity. Especially in America it is true that our educated deaf are a direct legacy from the system evolved by De l'Epee and handed down to Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet. The latter has been honored with monuments and memorials, and his natal day is celebrated by the deaf throughout the land. It became a grateful duty to recognize the source of all our well-being and happiness, and the National Association of the deaf, which sponsored and instigated the project of a fund for a statue of De l'Epee, is at last near realization.

At the present time the fund in the hands of Mr. Samuel Frankenheim, who is the very efficient treasurer, amounts to something over $8,000. It is expected that $10,000, the mark aimed at, will be secured before the end of the year 1928.

The location has been selected in the City of Buffalo, N. Y., so we are informed. There does not seem to be any valid objection, and we are glad to endorse the action of those in power, by averring that the place is excellent and in our opinion will give universal satisfaction.

The choice of the sculptor has not yet been decided. So, before it is too late, we venture to suggest that Mr. Douglas Tilden be invited to create a statue of De l'Epee that will not only be a memorial that interprets itself, but will be an honor to the deaf of America, inasmuch as it will proclaim to the ever-moving panorama of people that a deaf man, educated in American schools, a product of our Combined System, possesses the educated ability and genius to create it.

Tilden has proved by his sculptured creations that he is a wonderful idealist. The City of San Francisco has been beautified with statues, monuments and sculptured creations, that vouch for marvelous skill of brain and hand. There is no doubt but the creator of Father Junipero Serra, that awes and inspires the visitors to the splendid Golden Gate Park in San Francisco, can, if he be willing, tell in sculptured clay about the kindly heart, the noble sympathy, that animated the being of Charles Michel de l'Epee.

An article about Southern Schools; a news letter from South Dakota; and a circular letter about the International Congress at Prague, Jugoslavia, have been postponed to next issue, when they will surely be printed in the JOURNAL.

The Capital City.

Local deaf and their friends have the real privilege and opportunity to attend sessions of Congress in their own city, and learn for themselves how the laws of the land are made. The history of the American Congress is most fascinating, dating back to the formative days of the Republic. If you ever go to the capital building, and it is hoped that you do not overlook the privilege which is yours, be sure to stop in the Supreme Court chamber. You will have to be very still, of course, for the nine judges, with the Chief Justice, William Howard Taft, in the center, are very impressive and grave in their judicial robes, as they weigh and measure the justice of the matter before them.

The test of the Baptist Mission of Sunday last was "The New Birth," John 3:3.

"Religion should be first through Jesus Christ to know and guide the new moral and social code."

Miss Nora Nanney rendered "Rock of Ages."

The Baptists had their annual business meeting, December 4th, at Calvary Baptist Church, and elected officers to serve during the ensuing year as follows: Prof. Harley D. Drake, Bible Class Leader; Mr. R. L. Boswell, Treasurer; Mr. J. T. Flood and Mr. Earl Ridgway, Trustees.

The Woman's Guild of St. Barnabas' Mission held its first business meeting for this year at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. Lorraine Tracy, on Ninth Street, northeast, Monday evening, the 5th. The old officers were all re-elected by acclamation as follows: Mrs. A. F. Adams, President; M. W. Galloway, Vice-President; Mrs. C. C. Colby, Secretary; Mrs. Mary Marshall, Treasurer and Mrs. Tracy, Visiting Committee. Besides this, arrangements were made for a bazaar to be held in the new Parish House for St. Mark's Church, corner A and 3d Streets, southeast, on the afternoon and evening of the 14th of December. It is hoped all the Capital City deaf will lend a helping hand to this worthy undertaking, for the money goes to the uplift of the deaf. The Guild will hereafter meet on the evening of the first Tuesday in the month at a place to be chosen by the President. During the evening, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those who were present at this initial meeting were Rev. and Mrs. Tracy, Mesdames Adams, Colby, Marshall, Galloway and Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Edington.

The text of the Rev. H. Lorraine Tracy at the first Sunday of the month service at St. Mark's Church was from II Corinthians 9:15.

H. W. Lowry, who had been sick following an accident recently, has fully recovered.

Don't forget the St. Barnabas Bazaar, December 14th, at the new Parish House of St. Mark's Church on A and 3d, S. E., from afternoon to evening.

And "Lit" on the evening of December 21st. Roy Stewart is to give a talk.

Milford Liden, a pupil in the Hartford School, was in the city during Thanksgiving week.

Let us hope that the deaf of Washington may follow Hunter S. Edington's example—renewing his subscription to DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL.

When the month of December ushered in, it brought Merry Christmas tidings from JOURNAL readers to the writer. The first that came was from Miss Pearl Krinitz, of Kendallville, Indiana. She is an ardent JOURNAL reader and is living with her mother.

Last week the Washington deaf were excited and inquired if our friends, Francis P. Gibson and his charming wife, were to stop in this city while on their way to Binghamton, N. Y.

Roger O. Scott is certainly proud of his little daughter, Meda Lotta. He wheels her around town every day after his office hours.

PACIFIC NORTHERN SERVICES FOR THE DEAF

REV. OLOF HANSON, MISSIONARY

Seattle—1st and 3d Sunday, 3 P.M. St. Mark's.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

On Saturday afternoon, December 10th, there were a couple of hundred deaf-mutes, graduates of different schools, assembled in the Fanwood Institution Chapel, to witness the ceremonies at the unveiling of an oil portrait of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, the founder of the first school for the deaf of America.

The portrait was the work of Jacques Alexander a deaf-mute artist of distinction. It was a project fathered by the American Society of Deaf Artists, assisted by organizations of the deaf located in New York City.

The program on the occasion is given as printed, though there was a slight variation. Mrs. Burke was unable to be present, and was substituted by Miss Alice E. Judge. On account of the critical illness of her sister, Mrs. Sherman, Miss Gallaudet could not attend, so the painting was unveiled by a pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berger. A brief address on Gallaudet was made by Mr. Edwin A. Hodgson.

The address by Dr. Fox was a masterly effort and it is hoped he will allow it to be printed in full.

8. "Value to Deaf-Mutes of Dr. Thomas H. Gallaudet's Teaching".....Dr. Thomas F. Fox
9. Conclusion, with short addresses.
10. Music.....Fanwood Band

CONTRIBUTORS

In remembrance of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet's work, the following deaf organizations cooperated with the American Society of Deaf Artists.

Bronx Division, No. 92, N. F. S. D.
Brooklyn Division, No. 23, N. F. S. D.
Brooklyn Silent Athletic Club
Deaf-Mutes' Union League
Fanwood Alumni Association
Harlem Silent Club
Hebrew Association of the Deaf
League of Elect Surds
Lexington Alumni Association
Lutheran Guild of the Deaf
Manhattan Division, No. 87, N. F. S. D.
Margat Club
Men's Club of St. Ann's Church
The Boys and Girls of the 44th St. School
The V. B. G. A.
Woman's Parish Aid Society of St. Ann's Church
Brooklyn Guild of Deaf-Mutes

The ceremonies occupied full an hour, and were very interesting. The Gallaudet Memorial Portrait Committee were: Fred C. Berger, secretary, Hjalmar Borgstrand, Chairman, Victor Anderson, H. Nesgood, Miss Ruby Abrams, all of whom are members of the American Society of Deaf Artists.

The meeting of St. Matthew's Lutheran Guild was held on the twelfth day of last month at eight o'clock at Immanuel Lutheran church, South 9th Street, Brooklyn, and was dismissed shortly before midnight.

The result of the elected officers were as follows:

President, Clarence Peterson; Vice-President, Hjalmar Borgstrand; Secretary, John Nesgood; Treasurer, Katherine Christgau; Board of trustees—Conrad J. Ulmer, Erich Berg, Albert Downs; Due collector, Oscar Rehling; Correspondent, Conrad J. Ulmer.

The Fourth Annual Bazaar, under the Auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. Matthew's Lutheran Mission to the Deaf, in aid of the Building Fund, was held at St. Mark's Parish house in Brooklyn, December 1, 2 and 3. It was a big success under Mrs. Carrie Brooks, the chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Hjalmar Borgstrand, Mrs. Charles Schneider and Miss Elizabeth Rehling.

Mr. William Thyburt, of San Francisco, was a guest of Mr. Harry Newman at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad J. Ulmer, of Woodside, L. I., for a few days, and went back to his home last week.

Harry Gutschneider, who for the past several years, as center, has been one of the mainstays of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League Basketball Five, this year is playing regular scheduled games with the Y. M. H. A. of New Rochelle. He is the only deaf-mute on the team. Last week, they defeated the Xavier, Big Five of New York City. Allen, a former St. Joseph's Institute player, is a member of the Xaviers this year.

N. A. D. BRANCH

On the evening of Gallaudet Day, there was a big crowd at the "informal dance" given in the Guild Room of St. Ann's Church for Deaf-Mutes.

The room was crowded with staid people who came to look on, and made lively by the exuberant youth who whirled sweet maidens in the dizzy waltz.

There were refreshments on sale at nominal prices.

Mr. Frankenheim did a thriving business in enrolling new members. It was close onto midnight when the merry throng dispersed.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. M. Mayers (nee Mollie Rosenberg) was tendered a surprise birthday party. It was engineered by her brother, Moss A. Rosenberg, and his wife.

On the morning of the party, Mrs. Mayers received a pleading request for help at her hearing brother, Louis, who is married and lives in the Bronx. She went and remained all day and far into the night. When she got back to her own apartment, accompanied by her brother and sister-in-law, all the guests had arrived. All the lights had been turned out, she had nary a thought of what she was to encounter as soon as she turned on the lights. It was a genuine surprise. She greeted every one cordially, is all of them, about twenty-five, were all her friends.

The evening passed off very pleasantly, game were played, and prizes given to the winners, chiefly among the games was the guessing how many orange seeds were in a bag. Mrs. Mayers was allowed to make the first guess, and it proved to be the correct one.

In the blind-man contest, Anthony Capelle won the prize.

At ten-thirty a dainty buffet lunch with plenty of various beverages were served in the dining room.

At the midnight hour all departed for home, wishing Mrs. Mayers many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Mayers received many beautiful and useful gifts, which were shown ere the guests left for home.

Mrs. Mayers will be remembered in her school days at Fanwood as Mollie Rosenberg. She is a sister of Moses A. Rosenberg, a prosperous union printer.

Among those present at the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Bachrach, Bramson, Max Miller, Culmer Barnes, Lowenherz, Gomprecht, Hatowsky, I. G. Moses, Louis Rosenberg, Mrs. A. Miller, Mrs. A. Solomon, Mrs. Moses A. Rosenberg, Miss Leah Rosenberg, Mrs. L. A. Cohen, Anthony Capelle, and several others.

On December 11th, St. Matthew's Lutheran congregation held a meeting after the service, shortly before five o'clock, to make arrangements for the Christmas Festival which will take place on December 26th, 1927, in the afternoon at three o'clock, at Immanuel Lutheran Church 177 South 9th Street, Brooklyn.

The members beg all the Lutherans to be present at the church at three o'clock on that date, to hear the Christmas service, and we will have a social gathering in the evening.

The church is open to all deaf-mutes and hearing people, who wish to attend the Lutheran service, therefore Rev. Arthur Boll cordially invites you to come to his service.

Mr. Oscar Rehling will be the chairman for the Christmas Festival, on December 26th, 1927, and all hope that he will get along fine with his work.

A most exciting basketball game was played between the Xavier and Margat teams on the Xavier's court on the afternoon of November 26th.

The Margat team was defeated by the Xavier team to the count of 27 to 17. It was very fast and well played. Kerwin, Kostyk and Rosen-sweet starred, and Bayarsky and Ash were guarded fine. The scorer was J. Gleicher, the game played on November 19th, by the Leake and Watt school and the Margat teams was won by the former.

At their December meeting, held on Wednesday evening, the 6th, the Manhattan Division, No. 87, N. F. S. D., elected new officers for 1928, as follows: President, Max M. Lubin; Vice-President, Joseph Sturtz; Secretary, Nathan Schwartz; Treasurer, W. B. Mellis; Director, L. Hyams; Sergeant-at-Arms, Norman Magnus; Trustee for three years, Jacob Friedman; Trustee in place of A. Hymes resigned, M. W. Loew.

On Thursday evening, December 8th, the Deaf-Mutes' Union League elected new officers for the 1928 term as follows: President, Marcus L. Kenner; First Vice-President, Benjamin Mintz; Second Vice-President, Ludwig Fischer; Secretary, Nathan Schwartz; Treasurer, Samuel Lowenherz; Board of Governors, Samuel Frankenheim, Allan Hitchcock and John N. Funk.

On October 15th, James Graham, the brother of Joseph F. Graham, left for Hollywood, Fla., where a position was awaiting him. Inquiry developed that he had been struck by an auto and taken to a hospital and is getting well.

On December 1st, the Entertainment Committee of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League, headed by Abraham Barr, sent out notice to all the non-resident members and those active members who seldom come to the club rooms and attend meetings, that the forty-second anniversary of the founding of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League will be celebrated on Saturday evening, January 7th, 1928, with a ball (tormal) at the "The Chalf", 163 West 57th Street. Only members and their lady friends are permitted to attend, and members wishing to attend must notify Mr. Barr on or before December 25th, 1927.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Cosgrove, on Gallaudet Day, Saturday, December 10th, a son, who will be named Harry T. Mrs. Cosgrove was a former pupil at Fanwood (Susan Adcock), as also was Mr. Cosgrove. Congratulations upon their new treasure, and may good luck always be their portion.

Recently we came across the following, and append it in this column, to show something like it has been going around the country clothed in different garb. This time it is enacted in a Jewish School for the Deaf.

NOT AS DUMB AS THEY LOOKED

The Superintendent of a Jewish school for the deaf and dumb invited a friend—a bachelor of long standing—to the annual ball given by the inmates of the institution.

Coming to the hall the guest approached his host and consulted him as to his conduct in this mute world.

"Just step up to any girl you like," said the supervisor, "bow to her, and indicate by a motion that you wish to dance with her."

A few minutes later the diffident fellow was spinning rapturously with a dream of a girl. She had a tall figure, a fine, intelligent face, and a winsome, bewitching smile. Her dancing was simply divine.

In silent reverie the two danced, and danced, and danced. Tenderly, affectionately, with a touch of noble melancholy, they looked into each other's eyes.

"Too bad," he mused, "that such a lovely girl should be so afflicted."

All of a sudden a young man, infuriated beyond words, rushed up to the dancing girl, and grabbed her by the arm.

"You seem to be very fond of this guy," he raged. "It looks as though you forgot that I escorted you here. Don't you think you owe me a little attention?"

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself," retorted the young lady, "to be jealous of a fellow who is deaf and dumb!"

At last the general public were afforded an opportunity to see the new Ford cars on Friday, December 2d. The deaf were included in the courtesy thousands, and it has come to the knowledge of ye scribe that they are among the happy New Yorkers, for their relatives by March 1, 1928, will be running about in our streets in these new creations with them as passengers. As the price is low, one would not be surprised if there were many deaf owners of Fords.

FRANK A. BROWN DEAD

Frank A. Brown died suddenly on Tuesday, December 6th, 1927, at St. Luke's Hospital.

His body was brought to 133 East 87th Street, where it reposed till Thursday morning, December 8th. The funeral took place at eleven o'clock at St. Ignatius Church, Park Avenue and 84th Street.

On Tuesday and Wednesday relatives and friends called to pay a final tribute. Among them were many deaf-mute members of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League and Manhattan Division, No. 87, N. F. S. D., of which deceased was a member.

Besides his brother George and family, his wife Agnes McD., and daughter Muriel, Mr. and Mrs. Bramson and Mr. and Mrs. Bachrach, were among the few deaf-mutes that accompanied the remains to his resting place in Calvary Cemetery.

Mr. Frank A. Brown was 55 years at the time of his death. He graduated from the St. Joseph's Institute for Deaf-Mutes, Westchester, N. Y. He was a printer, and held a position with Thompson & Son for thirty-eight years, quitting about a year ago on account of ill health.

Mr. Frank A. Brown was generally known among the deaf, for he mingled much in their social affairs. He was gentle of disposition and a likeable companion.

For the past year, on account of his failing health, he was seen very little. He, however, called on intimate friends occasionally.

The last time he visited the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League was before Thanksgiving, and at that time he seemed to be greatly improved in health. Only a few of his intimate friends knew that he was in St. Luke's Hospital, and his death has caused sorrow among his many friends.

At the Deaf-Mutes' Union League rooms, black crepe was hung up, to remain for a period of thirty days. At the meeting held on the evening of the funeral, all the members stood up with bowed heads, out of respect for the departed member. The Frats, which held its meeting the night previous, also showed like respect, and many of them who could view their respect to their dead frater where the body was reposing. Mr. Marcus L. Kenner in behalf of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League and the Manhattan Frats delivered an eulogy.

PHILADELPHIA

The following clipping is from The Evening Bulletin, November 28th, 1927:

William McIntyre, 4020 Ogden Street, who died November 20th, and whose will was probated today, provided for the ultimate disposal of the bulk of his estate of $263,400 and upwards in public bequests.

To his widow, Mrs. Sarah Jane McIntyre, was devised $150,000 in trust and personal effects. At her death, $100,000 of the principal is to go to the Masonic Home of Pennsylvania, 3333 N. Broad Street, and the remaining $50,000 to the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf.

The testator also established a $100,000 trust fund for the benefit of his son, William A., and provided that at his death his children shall become beneficiaries of the fund. In case there are no surviving heirs, the trust is to revert to the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf.

Mr. McIntyre bequeathed $10,000 to St. John's Lodge, No. 115, F. and A. M., and devised his residuary estate to his widow and their son.

The William A. named above, is the deaf-mute son of the testator. He is married and has one child, and the family has been living at Wildwood, N. J., for several years past.

The testator was a realty man and former manufacturer and a staunch friend of the late Dr. A. L. E. Crouter. The latter had frequently encouraged the members of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf by telling them that he knew a person who promised to devise a good sum to the Society for its Home for the Aged and Infirm Deaf, but he never divulged the name of the future generous benefactor of the Home. Dr. Crouter and Mr. McIntyre were known as good friends of long standing.

Although it may be a long while before the bequest will finally reach the Home, it will be a very great help in insuring its future stability, for which we should feel very grateful and thankful. The deaf of Pennsylvania have worked so long and hard for their Home for the Aged through their State Society, that they will doubtless rejoice to hear this latest bit of good news. But it also means greater responsibility for the Society and its whole membership—its officers in particular. The steps that are now proposed to be taken to make the government of the Home more elastic, as it were, should be very fully scrutinized and weighed before any radical change is attempted.

The recent passing away of James Williams, of Wilkes Barre, removed a very familiar and well-known figure from the deaf community of that part of the State. In training Mr. Williams was far above the ordinary deaf mute; he was known to mingle very freely with hearing people and was a leader among his own class. As far as we (his school-mates) know, his whole sphere of life was confined to and spent in or near his home town, except the time he spent at school in Philadelphia.

This year (1927) is a sort of off-year for the Gallaudet Club. On Friday evening, December 9th, the members of the Club met at the Roma Cafe, 1412 Spruce St., for dinner, at 6:30 o'clock; and after it, without indulging in after-dinner speeches, smokes, etc., went fooling around in a body, that is, they attended a theatre where the big attraction was "Foolin' Around."

The quarterly business meeting and annual election officers of the Clerc Literary Association will be held at All Souls' Parish House on Thanksgiving evening, December 15th.

William C. Shepherd's last one-day trip was to Boston, Mass., to see the sights of the Hub. Needless to say that he enjoyed it.

J. S. Reider entertained his brother and wife from the Oley valley in upper Berks County last Saturday and Sunday.

The Beth Israel Association of the Deaf held a business meeting on Sunday before last. The Association expected to have a speaker for Sunday, 11th, but we do not know yet who he was.

The regular business meeting of the Philadelphia Local Branch, P. S. A. D. will be held at the Parish House of All Souls' Church for the Deaf, 16th Street above Allegheny Avenue, Saturday evening, the 17th. Change of dates of future monthly meetings of the branch and the usual remembrance of residents of the Home at Christmas time, will be considered.

Mr. Robert M. Ziegler has finally disposed of his former home on Mt. Pleasant Avenue in Mt. Airy. The sale price, though not as large as he expected, was the best he could get at this time. Considering that city taxes will be higher next year; he is saved the increase in addition to the price obtained.

Mrs. Nathan Schwartz attended the fashionable wedding of a niece of the Stotesburys recently, and appears in the group picture taken for and printed by The Daily News.

A soft heart does not necessarily produce a soft head.

In making a success of himself, a man contributes to the success of everyone else.

FANWOOD.

During the Thanksgiving recess, the pupils enjoyed their holiday from November 22d to November 28th.

Last Thursday, in the chapel, an interesting program was given by the Eighth Grade Class of Girls, before the members of the Fanwood Literary Association. The program was as follows.

1. Story—"When Evelyn was Real Brave," by Rose DeGuglielmo.

2. Story—"Saved by a Dog," by Helen Kahler.

3. Reading—"Little Gretchen," by Lena Getman.

4. Debate—Resolved, That steam is better for heating than stoves. Affirmative—Margaret Gibbons. Negative—Rose DeGuglielmo.

5. Reading—"A Story About Two Dogs," by Angeline Durso.

6. Story—"Marie's Trouble," by Mary Krivak.

7. Reading—"A Boy Who Loved Birds," by Margaret Gibbons.

8. Reading—"Hilda and the Indians," by Madeline Kauth.

9. Reading—"The Brave Little Tailor," by Anna Rohlfing.

10. Reading—"The Sun and the Moon," by Anna Hessek.

11. Playette—"Kindergarten Days," by the Class.

Last week there was an exciting basketball game in the gymnasium between the "George" and "Billy" teams. The "George" team, captained by Cadet G. I. Harris, lost by the score of 16-15, to the "Billy" quint, which was under the captaincy of Cadet Lieutenant W. Horne.

Last Friday there was another hot basketball game. It was played between the team of "Otto," under the captaincy of Cadet Lieutenant O. Johnson, and the "Billy" team, under the captaincy of Cadet Lieutenant W. Horne. The score was a 16-16 tie, so three minutes extra were played and the final score was 20-17. Cadet Lieutenant O. Johnson starred for the "Otto" team by shooting two goals.

The Fanwood basketball team is to play a basketball game with the Horace Mann School team on Friday afternoon, December 16th, at the Horace Mann court, near Van Cortlandt Park.

The Fanwood III basketball team changed its name to The Gardner Team, in honor of Principal Gardner. The players are Corporal Musicians Abe Hirson, David Mahler, Sam Forman, Drummer Albert Capocci and Cadet Sandy Tedesco. The substitutes are Cadets Alex. Ovary and James Butler. We all hope that this team will make good, as they are fine in passing and forward throws.

There was an exciting game between "Leo," under the captaincy of Leo Port, and "Nick," captained by Nicholas Giordana, last Wednesday, December 7th. During the first half, the game was so fast that both teams were well warmed, and tied at 14 to 14. During the last quarter, Port and H. Kalmanowitz were ruled out of the game on account of four personal fouls, but the "Leo's" team won by the score of 20 to 19. Leo Port did wonderfully well, as we all know that he is a star player.

DIED

At his home 20 Winship Avenue, Pittsfield, Mass., last October, Meder Jallavette, aged 71, after a long illness. He attended the Malone School and was married to Mrs. Harriet Reed Edwards thirty-five years ago, who survives him. Buried in Dalton, Mass.

At The North Hudson hospital in Weehawken, N. J., December 7th, of bladder trouble, Roscoe S. Munger, aged 77, of Salisbury Center, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Munger went to New Jersey a few weeks ago, to spend the winter with their daughter, Maud Wildrick. Weehawken, N. J. Soon after arriving at the hospital, Mr. Munger was operated on, but grew weaker. Mr. Munger was a graduate of the Fanwood school. He married Louisa Clum, who survives him, also four children, Ralph of Cold Brook, N. Y., Bryer of Salisbury Center, N. Y., Harry of St. Johnsville, N. Y., and also thirteen grand children. Funeral and burial in Salisbury Center, N. Y.

PROTECTION

Your boy or girl, (if over 10 years old and in good health) can now obtain Life Insurance in this Company.

You will be surprised to know how little it costs and how much it is going to mean to him or her later on.

Start your child on the sure road to Thrift. He or she will eventually have the same need for life insurance protection that you have.

NOTE: Deaf-mutes also have the privilege of insuring in this Company at same rates as to hearing persons.

PITTSBURGH.

The P. S. C. had a card party Saturday evening, November 26th. There were six tables of "500." Winner for men, J. C. Taylor, (1620 points) received a tie as prizes; for women; Mrs. Joseph Saunders, (1870), handkerchief. Consolation prizes in form of candy went to George Cowan (1090 in hole), and Mrs. Harold Smith (300). Although not an advertised event, a large crowd was present, which was not unexpected as the place has good drawing powers, even on week days. Any evening you drop in, you are certain to have plenty of company.

A handy official schedule for 1927-1928 of the Press-Spalding Central Basketball League, to which the Pittsburgh Silents belong, is being distributed among friends in the hope that they take advantage of every opportunity to attend the games in which their favorites participate. Each team in the league plays twenty or more games, which, with the necessary practice to keep in trim, is plenty to keep the boys on the go and awake through the dull, cold months.

James Shaner, a lifelong Pittsburgher, aged 67, passed away from acute indigestion, November 27th. Funeral services were held on the evening of the 29th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clemenson, where Mr. and Mrs. Shaner lived as tenants on the second floor. Interment took place the next morning. Mr. Shaner had been regarded as a confirmed bachelor until a year ago, when he surprised us by marrying Mrs. Frances Blair. The bereaved has our heartfelt sympathy.

The Wilkinsburg Silent Club has changed its name to the Wilkinsburg Association of the Deaf. The Thanksgiving event at the club room was a dinner from 1:30 to 4 p.m. It was the first of the kind ever to be given by any organization of the deaf hereabouts. Fears had been entertained for the success of the affair, owing to the fact that the majority of us prefer to spend the day at our homes or family re-union, but there was a crowd of some 150, all of whom seemed well repaid for the day lost at their own hearths. Six turkeys, one a sixteen pounder, and the others five pounds cooked one each by Mesdames Friend, Sawhill, Leitner, Finley, Blackhall and Mr. Smith, at their respective homes, featured the menu, which read:—

Olives	Pickles	Celery
Turkey with Dressing
Sweet Fried Potatoes	Mashed Potatoes
Peas	Cranberry Sauce	Slaw
Mince and Pumpkin Pie	Cheese
Ice-Cream
Tea	Coffee

Many of the diners had a second helping of the concentrated palatable—all for $1.50. As far as can be learned, there were no ill effects from the stuffed stomachs.

A Thanksgiving after-dinner play-let was staged, showing the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock and also the feast arranged by the Indians. The players in Puritan toggery were Frank Leitner, Mesdames Blackhall, H. Smith and Friend, Misses M. Danahey and Eber. John Stanton and Clifford Davis represented the Indians.

The business meeting, December 3d, of the N. F. S. D., No. 36, saw the election of new officers as follows: President, Harry Zahn; Vice-President, Fred Farke; Secretary, George Cowan; Treasurer, Sam Rogalsky; Director, Wesley Stevenson; Sergeant-at-Arms, Charles Reiser; Trustees (three years), Frank Leitner; Deputy James K. Forbes. Installation takes place January 7th. Numbered among the non-residents at the meeting were Marion Allen, of Greensburg; J. C. Butterbaugh, of Altoona; Guy Montgomery, of Donora; Frank Schaeffer, of Woodlawn; Joseph Novalis, of Ernest, Pa.; Ernest Nickerson and Leon Warren, of Washington, Pa.; Abraham Richman, of Altoona (Johnston Div.), also was present. Fred Wilkinson was joined in the ranks at this meeting. It was decided to change the place of the annual banquet to be held in February from Hotel Roosevelt to Fort Pitt Hotel. This change is much to be regretted as the Roosevelt is newly-built and up-to-date to the last detail, but it was feared the cost of $2.75 per plate would keep many away, Pittsburgh being "the city of millionaires" notwithstanding. The charge at Fort Pitt will be $2, which includes the use of the dance hall.

Owing to inability to secure a decent hall, it is months since the frats had their last entertainment, but they are still on the look-out for a place and hope to land it before the new year is very old. A watch-night social December 31st, will probably see the finish of McGeagh Hall in the entertainment line. With such attractive halls as the P. S. C. and W. S. C. possess, it is now hard to draw a sizeable crowd to McGeagh.

The news below appeared in the Sun and Telegraph of December 2d.

A verdict for $344.15 was returned in Criminal Court today against a mute, Fred D. Allen, 35, Keystone Street, in a damage suit brought by Maj. Z. D. Henry, army physician. Allen testified through an interpreter, Prof. A. U. Downing, teacher in the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf. The suit grew out a collision.

When approached on the above report, Mr. Allen denied it and claimed that he really won the case, which was not ended yet. The other fellow went out of his way when the collision occurred, damaging both cars. The accident was reported at length in this column some months ago. Allen has a clear case. Inasmuch as he has two witnesses to testify in his favor and Major Henry has none, the jury would do him an injustice to return such a verdict.

Owing to slack business at his printing shop, Sam Rogalsky has been laid off for the whole of December. This is his first such experience in eight years. For retrenchment reasons they had to shelve some one and picked the one unmarried man, and now Sam is paying the penalty of being a bachelor.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Margaret's Mission held a business meeting Thursday evening, December 1st, at which election of officers for the year 1928 took place. Mrs. Jacob Hess was made president and Mrs. Merrill Wilson, vice-president. Mrs. F. M. Holliday and Mrs. F. A. Leitner were re-elected secretary and treasurer respectively. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Herbert Bellows treated the members to sandwiches and cake.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR to all.

F. M. HOLLIDAY.

Gallaudet Home

Robert Patterson, who came here to live on the 4th of November, 1917, and was somewhere between eighty and ninety years of age, died of old age, on the 12th of February last.

Miss Sarah Woodworth, who made her home here, November, 1915, died on February 18th. She was over seventy years of age.

Wilbur Stilwell, who celebrated his seventieth birthday on June 24th, came here to live on the 26th of February. He was an old resident of Fordham, N. Y., and is a graduate of Fanwood. It pleased Wilbur to find a dozen of his schoolmates living here.

On Easter Sunday, it was found that Mrs. K. M. Jones, who had been matron of the Home for over twenty years, and was in the eighty-first year of her age, was ill with an attack of pneumonia. She passed away early on the morning of April 22d, and her funeral was held here in the chapel, on the 24th of April. The following day the remains of the departed one were taken to Willsboro, N. Y., for interment. Miss K. Martin, a niece of the deceased, who was made matron of the Home some two years ago, accompanied the remains of her aunt to their place of rest.

Long before dawn, on the 25th of May, Miss Barbara Johnson, who had been assistant matron of the Home for some seventeen years, and was supposed to be over eighty years of age, died suddenly of heart failure at her board place in Wappingers Falls.

Rev. John H. Kent officiated at her funeral, he being assisted by Rev. Brice, of Wappingers Falls, and another preacher.

During the late summer there was a visitor, or a number of visitors here every Sunday. Some of them came from distant places. The wonderful motor car is what enables this isolated place to have visitors all the year around. Some of the eighty or more visitors here on the 25th of June, thought that the day was the 105th anniversary of the founder of the Home, Rev. Thomas Gallaudet. During their few hours' visit, the inmates enjoyed their presence immensely. Some of the many visitors were hearing individuals.

On the afternoon of July 23d, the members of the Sunshine Club of Poughkeepsie came here in a body, via several motor cars. They treated us all to a dish of ice-cream and plenty of nice cake. They made this place a visit on April 2d, and treated us similarly. Before they left here, Mr. W. G. Shanks died. As chance would have it, Rev. J. H. Kent did not need to be called over the telephone to deliver the funeral service, for he came here late in the afternoon with a new inmate, Mrs. Henrietta Kennebaum, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The funeral of Mr. Shanks took place on the 25th of July. Right after the funeral, the body of the deceased was shipped to Albany, N. Y., for burial.

On the 6th of May, the day after his sixty-sixth birthday, Ellsworth A. Davis, of Pelham, N. Y., a small town on the Hudson River, some fifteen miles south of here, was admitted to the Home. His only son, Mr. Ellsworth A. Davis, Jr., who is twenty-five years of age, brought his father here in his motor car. This new inmate, who is a Fanwood boy, is by no means a stranger in a strange place, for he was here for some ten months when a very young man, doing some painting and some odd jobs for the place.

James Bergen, who was here for some nine years, left his place as janitor abruptly in the middle of May, and so Mr. Ellsworth A. Davis, Jr., was made janitor. He accepted the job for but a short time, or until he was able to replace himself by a new man. In the matter of getting a new janitor he acted in behalf of the matron. Within two weeks she selected Edward Weinsheimer, of Pelham, to take his place. This new janitor is a young married man. As Mr. Davis is a good carpenter and a jack of all trades, the matron finds him very useful and handy.

Mrs. C. Leary left here in the middle of June, to go and stay with her only sister, Sarah, who is Mrs. Brown, for the summer. She returned here on the 7th of September.

James Bergen is one of a number of men, who repair some of the roads within this vicinity.

Mrs. Margaret Redmond, who has been living here for the past three years, left here on the 24th of September, to visit her son down in the metropolis. She returned here on the 17th of October. She is well known as a dressmaker.

The blind deaf-mute, James H. Caton, was away for a couple of weeks, visiting his friend, Mrs. Steinreich, down at Crestwood, N. Y. This Mrs. Steinreich was Miss Alice Pease, who was a tutress at old Fanwood when she was a very young maiden. Her children, two girls and a baby, are all grown up.

In order to raise money to pay for its new supply of coal, there was a fair here on the grounds of the Home, on the 22d of September, which was pronounced a success. Rev. Kent and Miss Barrager came up to attend it. While passing through the dining room, I spoke orally to a hearing lady, and was surprised to learn that she was Miss Florence Sanford, the daughter of Mr. C. Sanford. She had come to attend the fair for the fun of it. Like most children whose parents are deaf-mutes, this young maiden can talk well with signs.

Before the advent of the wonderfully useful motor car, this institution was considerably more remote and isolated than now, and persons coming here for the first time experienced more or less difficulty in locating the place. Last summer there was a visitor or several visitors here every Sunday. All such persons, of course, came in their motor cars.

At about three o'clock on the afternoon of the thirteenth of November, Maurice Sinclair drove up to the door in his open motor car. His passengers were Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas and Joe Weber. They all alighted from the car, and after this scribe had shown them around, they left for Poughkeepsie, where they all live.

For a long, long time this correspondent has been unable to write this news, because his typewriter has been in a defective state. The printers could not make out many of the words in the manuscript. He, however, wrote the Home news and sent it to his niece, Mrs. Ralph Frost, who lives out in West Pittston, Pa., who copied the news on her typewriter and sent it to him here it is.

The inmates sit at half a dozen small tables, four persons at each table, in their dining room. When they entered the room on the night of the 31st of October for their supper, they were surprised to see a Jack-o'-lantern on each table. These grotesque figures were, it seemed, all staring at them, and as each person took their places they found a tiny basket of candies beside their plate.

Buffalo

TO THE EDITOR:—I am a new subscriber of the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, in which I am greatly interested, and I find it gives me an inspiration to improve my education and I think it will benefit me very much to read it. I appreciate the JOURNAL very much.

On the third of December, Buffalo Division, No. 40, elected Bro. Frank Kraling as President, Bro. Harry Slater as Vice President, Bro. Walter Carl as Secretary and Bro. Michael Crane as Director and Bro. George Langford as Sergeant-at-Arms: Buffalo Division, No. 40., has been growing in membership, until we have about one hundred, and the members have worked to secure more new members.

Grand President Gibson and Mrs. Gibson were forced to call off the lecture scheduled for the evening of December 1st in Buffalo, and hurry back to Chicago direct from Binghamton, N. Y., because of an accident to Mrs. Gibson's motor.

On Sunday the 4th, of December, Rev. H. C. Merrill, of Syracuse, N. Y., gave an interesting sermon regarding "Perils," at the church in Buffalo. He will have another service, January 1st, 1928, at 7.30 P.M.

A number of the Buffalo deaf have been laid off some months ago. But they have not the slightest feeling of uncertainty about the future of working conditions as business may possibly pick up and they may return to work on about January or February.

Mr. John Burmeister is assured of steady work at Springfels & Co., as velvet box worker in Buffalo.

On Saturday morning, the 26th of November, Deputy Brother James Coughlin and some Frat members of the Buffalo Division, No. 40, went by motor trip to Binghamton N. Y., where the new Division, No. 108, was installed, and they met Grand President and Mrs. Gibson there. On Sunday morning they drove back to Buffalo, a distance of three hundred fifteen miles from Binghamton, and reached Buffalo, Sunday afternoon. The whole trip was interesting and enjoyable.

DETROIT.

Watch Night Party, Vaudeville and Movies. All on one evening at the D. A. D., December 31st.

Be sure and come, and bring your friends.

Watch Night Party at the Detroit Frat Club, December 31st. Christmas Entertainment, December 23d. (Members only.) December 24th, Open House.

The Detroit Association of the Deaf will have its annual Christmas festival for members and their family at the club rooms, 321 W. Fort Street, December 24th. Ben Beaver, as general chairman, and Mrs. Beaver in charge of the program, promise something novel and entertaining. Out-of-town visitors are welcome. All local residents who wish to see the best Christmas entertainment ever held in Detroit, are requested to join the D. A. D. now.

At the D. A. D., December 17th, Puzzle Contest. M. A. Fielding is chairman.

Christmas Tree at St. John's, December 16th. Due the fact of the increasing population of the deaf world, it has been necessary to limit the invitations to members of St. John's Ephphatha Mission.

Detroit Division, No. 2, held its annual election of officers on December 3d. The new officers are: President, Asa Stustman, Dearborn; Vice-President, Eldon Birdwell, Detroit; Secretary, William Behrend; Treasurer, Fred Affeldt; Sergeant, Leo Goldstick; Board of Directors, J. Hostnick.

Clyde Beach and family are to spend the holiday at Port Huron. Hunting is on Clyde's program. Elephants?

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Whitehead are visiting their daughter in Mansfield, O.

Mrs. John Ulrich left on Saturday for Toronto, where she will visit relatives and friends for the rest of the year. If she sees this, please send us her address.

Detroit extends its sympathy to Fred McCarthy, whose mother passed away recently in Illinois.

Miss Beatrice Smith has returned from Chicago, where she visited an uncle. She was so busy having a good time she did not get around to visit the S. A. C., much to her regret.

At last the new Ford car is out. Thousands visited the exhibition. And several deaf men have ordered cars. But beware, work is still scarce, regardless of what the papers say, and Fords have many men who are working only two or three days a week.

Mrs. Max Crittenden is visiting her sister in Mansfield, Ohio.

Lucy Buchan is spending her idle time at Toronto, Gilbert Worley at St. Joseph. They are waiting for Hudson's factory to reopen.

Mrs. Bartley, of Toronto, has been visiting at Martin C. Halms.

Mr. John Deatsmann is out again, after his operation. Mrs. Ben Dahm is able to be downstairs.

Miss Alice Leckie spent the weekend in Sarnia.

Mr. Sloan, of Toronto, Ontario, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis LaPorte.

Miss Lenora Oldham, Perry Reihm, of Toledo, and Lake Clinker of Lima City, Ohio, were visitors at the Fraternal club Sunday.

Misses Mary and Jenny Granski have returned from Pittsburgh, where they visited with their classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Liddy called on the LaPortes last week and got caught in the bad storm we had, and were forced to return to Windsor in a taxi.

Mr. George May, who has been suffering with hammer toe since his accident several years ago, had the offending member removed at the Receiving Hospital some time ago, and was at home improving rapidly until infection set in. At this time he has improved just a little.

The Lutheran deaf held a very successful Bazar and Luncheon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Salmond, on the 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, of Ann Arbor, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pastori. He attended the N. F. S. D. meeting, as did Frank Smith, of Ypsilanti.

One of the best Movies of the season was given at St. John's, December 2d, under the management of General Ivan Heyman. You, who did not see it, missed a lot next time. Listen, you would have paid at least fifty cents for the same thing any place else.

OHIO.

News items for this column can be sent to B. M. Edgar, 56 Latta Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

The bazaar given in Krapp's Hall by the Toledo Ladies' Aid Society, on November 26th, was a successful affair, although only a small crowd greeted the members. They earned enough, however, to help towards the needs for their room in Wornstaff Hall at the Ohio Home. Those having charge of the affair were Mrs. Charles Kane, Misses Lindsey, Kraft, Gomoll, Mrs. Henick, Misses Martin and Hannaford.

Mr. George Miller, aged 65, of Columbus, was run down by a truck early Saturday morning, December 3d, while on his way to his work and was so badly injured that he died later in the day. From reports the truck had no lights, although it was still dark. Mr. Miller was in the habit of looking carefully before crossing streets always. He was a very quiet modest man and a good worker. He had been employed for many years in the sword department of the Lilly Regalia Works. His widow, Mrs. Belle McRedmond Miller, survives him. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning in Sacred Heart Church.

The Columbus Division, No. 18, N. F. S. D., at their meeting, December 3d, elected the following officers for 1928: Israel Crossen, President; Warren Shafer, Vice-President; J. Arnold, Secretary; A. Beckert, Treasurer; Merritt Rice, Director; W. Kurtz, Trustee; R. Ogden, Sergeant. Messrs. Wm. Myles, of Buffalo, and C. Stremmel, of Toledo, were present, and both gave short talks. As the Ohio State convention will be held in Columbus, the division is at work making plans for the same.

Mrs. C. Stremmel and daughter, of Toledo, came to Columbus, after visiting relatives at Cambridge, Ohio. As Mrs. Stremmel has secured work here, she has decided to remain and Mr. Stremmel in hoping to get work so he can call Columbus his home.

Miss Lamson reports that the E. M. G. Fund in Ohio has now reached $1,666.72.

A few days before Thanksgiving, Mrs. J. W. Jones received a shipment of celery from Mr. Frank Driggs, Superintendent of the Utah School. All who tasted the celery pronounced it fine.

The following is taken from a letter in the Ohio Chronicle, written by Mr. P. D. Munger, who is the secretary of the Ohio Deaf-Mute Alumni Association. The part quoted shows how Mr. Ayers, the president of the Alumni Association has been working:

"A few deaf who are closely associated with activities at Columbus know what has been accomplished, especially by President K. B. Ayers, of Akron. His work in connection with the Home for the Aged and Infirm Deaf has been noted in these columns occasionally.

The questionnaires most of the Ohio deaf received last Spring came from President Ayers' office. He made use of information gained therefrom in his speech at the teachers' convention held in Columbus last June. He has other plans with these questionnaires for the deaf of the future, which only the prompt co-operation of the Ohio deaf made possible. The preparation, printing, addressing and classifying the questionnaires, required plenty of spare time, hard work and patience.

In addition to this work, Mr. Ayers has called and attended several Board of Directors' meetings at Columbus.

But Mr. Ayers best efforts to improve the general welfare of the deaf is the part he took in the Gillen Bill, which originally sought to remove the school for the blind from the control of the Welfare of Department. Resolutions by the O. D. M. A. sought the same thing for the deaf for many years, but like Senator Gillen, who is blind and has the interest of his fellow unfortunates at heart, Mr. Ayers, representing the deaf, took immediate steps to gain what was wanted. He was fortunate to find Senator Gillen interested about the same time, and the co-operation, with the kind assistance of Mrs. Thomas (May Greener), as interpreter, could not have been better. The bill eventually passed, but few realize how much hard work was put into it. Several trips from Akron to Columbus were necessary; frequent consultations with the personnel of the Ohio Legislature; plenty of deep thinking and hasty decisions, and personal expense, constitutes the story of official work by our president, and we must agree it was a very big accomplishment, from which we are proud.

Through? No, indeed. I am told President Ayers is working on another matter of importance to the deaf, but which will require more funds for our treasury. It has been suggested that each city in Ohio with a fair deaf population have a benefit social in January or February, with a view to raising funds for our treasury and thus help carry on the much-needed work.

President Ayers has intimated that he is willing to make a personal appearance at any city, if convenient, and in this way stimulate enthusiasm by describing what has been done and what must be done. Let's rally to the appeal and be ready for a grand celebration at the next reunion."

It may be of interest to the deaf people of the country to know that the Fund has now reached a total of $27,233.52. If each one of them would contribute to the limit of his ability, it would be a simple matter to reach the goal of $50,000. The birthday anniversary of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet was on December 10th, and it would be a wonderful tribute to him if all who are able, would contributed to this Fund, which is to honor the son, Edward Miner Gallaudet. Send your contribution to H. D. Drake, Treasurer, Gallaudet College, Washington, D. C., or to your State agent. Below will be found the standing of each State in the quota campaign.

THE E. M. GALLAUDET MEMORIAL FUND.

TO THOSE WHO HAVE NOT CONTRIBUTED TO THIS FUND.

The Edward Miner Gallaudet Memorial campaign for a $50,000 building to the memory of Dr. Gallaudet, which is being waged by the deaf, is bearing good results. Already $27,000 has been raised by popular subscription, leaving only $23,000 yet to be raised. Each State was asked to give in proportion to its population. Some of the States such as Oregon, Idaho, Connecticut, Delaware, Texas and Vermont already have filled their quotas. Three of them oversubscribed.

Those who graduated from Gallaudet College are expected to contribute $50.00; those who attended but did not graduate $25.00, and all others are asked to contribute $1.00 or more. Hearing friends of the deaf are invited to contribute.

Within the last three days I heard two prominent deaf men conversing in substance as follows:—

Said one: "Have you contributed to the E. M. Gallaudet Memorial Fund? Each admitted that he had not, one expressing it about this way: "No, I am sorry I haven't." One concluded by saying: "You know I have been expecting to be called upon to contribute, but not a soul has called upon me."

Such a conversation between two intelligent men suggested to my mind that perhaps thousands who have not contributed to the Fund have just been waiting for some one to call upon them and ask them to give. To all who have not contributed, let me urge that you do so promptly, through the school papers or agents receiving funds. Do not wait for a solicitor to call.

There seems to be a misunderstanding among the deaf concerning the Fund. Many said, "I have never been to Gallaudet College. Why should I help?" They don't seem to realize what Dr. Gallaudet did for the deaf. He was a pioneer in the education of the deaf, and his influence was lasting.

One little deaf girl who gave some money to a State agent for the Fund, told him that Gallaudet helped her and she wanted to help honor him. That is the right spirit Gallaudet helped all the deaf. All the deaf should help honor his memory by contributing $1.00 or more to the Memorial Building. By honoring Gallaudet, you honor yourself.

Not long ago a deaf man sent a State agent $50.00 as his contribution to the Fund, and said that as he had obtained the benefit of five years—the full course—at Gallaudet College, he felt it his duty to support the Fund, so he sent the full amount asked of graduates.

So it is desired that all of the deaf, whether they even attended Gallaudet College or not, do their part in building the memorial to Dr. Gallaudet.

The campaigners should certainly take courage from the stimulating results of the Gallaudet Monument Replica Fund Committee Campaign, which was waged by the deaf several years ago.

This is a great opportunity for valuable service on the part of those called upon to aid in this work.

It should be regarded not merely as a duty but as a privilege. Of course, the people will respond when called upon for any service in connection with the campaign. A building is the most appropriate memorial to commemorate the virtues, achievements and accomplishments, of a man who performed good service for humanity. The memorial building to Dr. Gallaudet will perpetuate his unselfish and noble service for the deaf. As the years come and go, the deaf will treat with greater tenderness and get more inspiration from the life work and cherished ideas of Dr. Gallaudet. Honor Dr. Gallaudet.

"Soft peace she brings, wherever she arrives.
She builds our quiet, as she forms our lives.
Lays the rough paths of peevish Nature
And opens in each heart a little Heaven."
—Prior, "Charity."
